INTRODUCTION

With great pleasure we introduce ourself as one of the leading manufacturer of ISI marked L.P. Gas Stoves since the last 3 decades. Constant innovation and emphasis on developing visual aesthetics of our products has enabled us to achieve a formidable reputation as a leading manufacturer of L.P. Gas Stove and its accessories.

Behind the success story there is a vision of a dynamic and self-motivated group of expertise of our company. As a result, we can assure our customers, providing best quality products and building a relationship of trust and quality.

Cooking is no longer just a chore but an activity which the whole family indulges in, and derives joy out of it. Therefore, every single unit in our products are manufactured under strict quality control measures adhering to the specifications of the Bureau of Indian standards. Each component and spare part is rigorously tested before assembling the final product in our lab to meet the highest level of efficiency. Latest segment of Glass Cook-top adds a unique style to cooking, bringing the best of comfort and convenience to every household.

Finally it's our mission and wider vision to produce highest quality of product range and best value appliances for every Indian host. In doing so, we are add establishing long-term relationship with all of our customers, dealers and patrons.

Thanks
With Warm Regards
